MINUTES OF LAST MEETING signed as a true record

MATTERS ARISING; Kitchen floor to be replaced with hardboard and vinyl quote £290 accepted. There had been a positive response to the Quiz night and it was gaining popularity. More forward planning is necessary to cover Jack's holidays.

FINANCIAL STATEMENT; c/a £1030 (Wages and floor to be paid), £30534-36 Option 6 £45594-95 Total £77159-31

Joe to test whether the Junior Disco could restart with the D.J providing the staff but the centre doing the booking and coming to a financial arrangement. In the past the disco has been a good revenue earner. Current forms for the Lottery to be completed. It is possible that the County and NFDC could grant £25000 and we need the Lottery to give us £225000 with the balance coming from the Allotment Charity.

FORTHCOMING EVENTS. Quiz for the last Thursday in January. The Monopoly competition -organisation in hand.

A.O.B. Christmas closing; The centre would be closed from 1p.m Tuesday 24th December until re-opening on January 2nd 1997

The question of the centre car park in relation to the proposed NFDC car parking proposal was discussed. If necessary Private Car Park notice will be displayed and a chain across the entrance to prevent unlawful usage. Members would be able to park when they are attending meetings. Membership cards may be issued with group meeting times included.
Meeting closed 8.55 p.m.
